

“They [University of Oklahoma] are so happy with Denlar Hoods they are working to make them the required hood for all housing for the entire university.”

– Ryan Garton
R.L. Williams & Company
rlwco.com

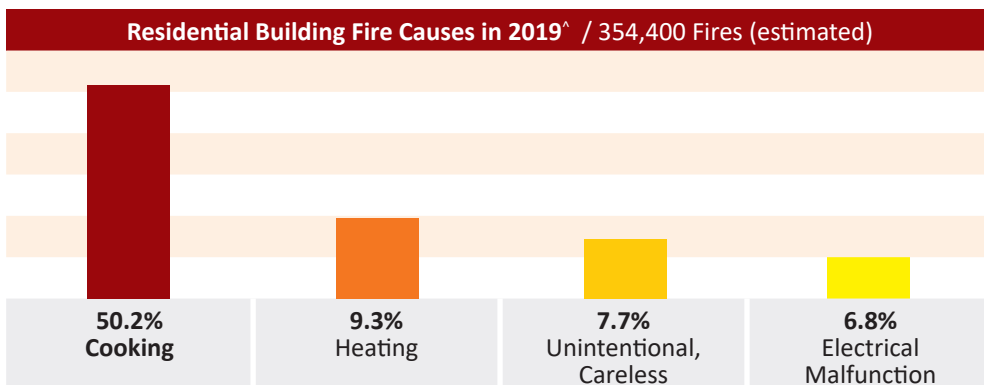

- Over 6,000 installations nationwide and continuously growing by an average of 28% every year
- NFPA101 2012, 2015, 2018 and 2021 compliant
 - New healthcare occupancies
 - Existing healthcare occupancies
 - New residential board and care occupancies
 - Listed to 300A Standards

Denlar’s fully integrated fire suppression range hood system is centered on the principles of a Type I System and meets all of the requirements of a Type II System and UL300A. Denlar Fire Protection (DFP) hoods have been protecting limited commercial cooking environments with an economic and proven solution for more than 10 years.

The World’s Only
Fail-Safe UL300A Hood
for use in any limited commercial kitchen
space, including:

- Schools / Dormitories
- Offices
- Daycare Centers
- Break Rooms
- ... and more

^{*}Source: www.usfa.fema.gov/data/statistics
Not responsible for typographical errors. Continuing research results in product improvement, therefore specifications are subject to change without notice. For the most updated information, please consult factory directly. D-1047-A Rev 072021

DENLAR
FIRE PROTECTION
PRE-ENGINEERED RANGE HOODS

A Proud USA Manufacturer

10 Denlar Drive | Chester, CT 06412 USA
t: 860-526-9846 | www.denlarhoods.com